STEP 3: STATEMENT OF SUPPORT

Write a statement not exceeding 200 words indicating why you are applying for an award / awards, and how the award(s) will make a difference to your achievements.

STEP 4: SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Attach supporting documentation to establish grounds for respective awards. Documents do not need to be formally witnessed or certified. Some examples (which you may or may not decide to include) are:

- For sporting and cultural awards: documents which establish excellence (maximum 5 pages).
- For cultural awards relating to music and other music awards: copies of music exam results.
- For the James Warner Music Scholarship: an indication of which instrument you intend to study.
- For rural/regional-based awards: evidence of rural/regional residence.
- For Bursaries and Combined Awards: sufficient financial information for you and your parents, documented as appropriate, to demonstrate hardship. These may include, for example, statements of income and expenditure, tax assessment notices, or Centrelink notices.
- For the Joe Croft Indigenous Award, documentation from a community Elder establishing your Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent.
- For Combined Awards: evidence of academic achievement (e.g., results transcripts, Dean's awards).

Privacy Notice: Financial information provided by the applicant and his/her parents will be treated with the strictest confidentiality. It will be used by the Awards Selection Panel solely for the purpose of assessing claims of financial need in applications for bursaries and combined bursaries/scholarships. The Awards Selection Panel will comprise the Warden, the Chair of the St John's College Council (or his/her nominee), and the Chair of the St John's College Foundation (or his/her nominee).
